National 4-H Week observed in Appomattox County

Nine Appomattox 4-Her's were named winners in State 4-H Programs during the past year. Pictured are David Hancock, a State 4-H Share-the-Fun winner with his talent act "Noah and the Lord" and Cheryl Simpson, a state winner in June is Dairy Month" Poster Contest.

Other State winners cited included: Glen McClenny, winner of a $200.00 scholarship in the Beef Cow-Calf program and also state Achievement Record winner in the Agriculture program area. Robert Taylor, Kathy Parsons and Steve Cyrus were named state winners in the Presentation contest area of Wildlife, Photography, and Archery. Richard Conner, Darrell Conner and Kenneth McClenny were members of the State winning 4-H Soils Judging Team.

4-H officers learn to accept responsibility and to serve their club. Officers develop leadership skills that will help them throughout life. Pictured are Outstanding Officers at Appomattox Elementary School for the 1981-82 year. They are Susan Watkins, Cindy Padgett and Kathy White.

Learning and developing project skills are big parts of the total 4-H program. Pictured are Stacy Davis and Terri Hamlett showing off their insect collection developed under the guidance of 5th grade teacher and 4-H volunteer leader Miss Pam White; Richard Conner, Darrell Conner and Kenneth McClenny as they study soil texture and structure at a 4-H Soils Team practice; Mrs. Stewart Robinson as she explains the parts of a CB Radio to member of the 4 Leaf Clover 4-H Club. Pictured are members Keshia Haskins, Susan Watkins, Larry Trent and Wendy Glover.

4-Her's learn through individual projects, special project workshops, 4-H camp classes, judging team practices and regular club programs.

Outstanding 4-H members are recognized during an annual 4-H Awards Banquet held in January of each year. 4-Her's are recognized for project work and overall accomplishments during the year. Pictured above are Martha Haley, Cheryl Wooten, Lisa Harrison and Curtis Moore who received awards at the 1982 4-H Awards Program.

Happiness is 4-H

4-H Officer Training was held last Wednesday afternoon at Appomattox Elementary School. Over 80 percent of the eligible 4-H officers participated in the training session. The purpose of the officer training program was to help each new 4-H officer to understand his or her job and the responsibilities that go along with it. Thanks to the following members of the Teen Leader 4-H Club who helped conduct the workshop: Laura Walton, Nancy Cole, Jo Ann Jamerson and Anne Hancock.

On Thursday evening, October 14, all 4-H project materials will be on display in the library at Appomattox Elementary School during the first PTA meeting. Parents, students and teachers will be invited to stop by and look over the various 4-H materials. With parents understanding more about 4-H project work, 4-H members should receive more encouragement from their parents. Project work is an extremely important part of the total 4-H program. There are many opportunities for parents to help as project leaders and help teach young people project skills.

Last year's 4-H projects may be turned in until Friday, October 15. All 4-H'ers are encouraged to turn in their completed projects.

The East Central District 4-H Volunteer Leaders Association will hold its fall meeting on Saturday, October 16, beginning at 9:30 a.m. at the District Extension Office Meeting Room in Appomattox. Included in this year's program will be a session on parliamentary procedure, a session on Interstate Exchange Programs and a session on International 4-H Programs. Recognition of unit volunteers will also take place. The meeting will be over by 3:00 p.m.

A number of parents and volunteers have expressed concern over the judging of 4-H events over the years. A new effort is underway to train and certify volunteers and parents who will agree to serve as judges at various 4-H events such as Share-the-Fun, Public Speaking and 4-H Presentations. Special training sessions will be held for parents and other 4-H volunteers who agree to become certified as 4-H judges. The idea is for each county to have a group of trained volunteers to call on for the judging of local, area and district events.

The judging or evaluating of another person is seldom easy but often necessary in today's society. Watch for announcements of these training sessions for 4-H judges.

Proceeds from the sale will be used to support sight conservation efforts and other community projects undertaken by the Lions.
